

The no call law should not be repealed because of lobby groups such as this banking group. The government should represent the wishes of the majority of us not wanting to receive those annoying phone calls. A well paid lobbyist is only concerned with the wishes of his or her client. Please do the right thing and leave the no call law alone.